

1 but here it seems to me you give the General Assembly
2 authority to prescribe the lieutenant governor's functions
3 which the governor could but doesn't want to delegate to 4 him. That is what we want to avoid.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hodge Smith.

6 DELEGATE J. H. SMITH: Don't you think that 7 would clear up the questions that are in the minds of 8 Delegates who are questioning this section?

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

10 DELEGATE MORGAN: I think it is entirely too
11 broad.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gleason.

13 DELEGATE GLEASON: I think if I might suggest 14 to the Chairman, there are two problems that seem to con-
15 cern the delegates, they certainly concern me. One is the 16 problem just raised by Delegate Smith. I think this would 17 be a good change because obviously if the General Assembly 18 decided to give a duty to the lieutenant governor, then if 19 the governor didn't approve of that duty, he would veto the 20 bill and, of course, the General Assembly would be forced 21 to overturn that vote by a three-fifths or two-thirds
